THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT—ANOTHER PHASE.

In two previous articles we have, pretty thoroughly we think, established the position that the site of New Westminster was carefully and judiciously selected, and duly erected and proclaimed as the Capital of British Columbia, and that the act by which Vancouver Island became an integral part of British Columbia, in no way affected or disturbed the question; and, moreover, that not only did the people of Vancouver Island virtually relinquish all claim to have the seat of Government within the limits of the Island, by the passage of the unconditional union resolutions, but by repeated and distinct declaration, positively professed their readiness to surrender all right and claim thereto. In following up this subject we shall now proceed, as briefly as possible, to state upon what grounds we hold that neither the people nor their so-called representatives are competent to deal with the question, under existing circumstances. When the capital of a colony has been regularly established by Government, and the ground sold—large amounts of money invested, not upon any self-constituted "belief" that it would be the capital, but upon a distinct official, overt act on the part of the local Government, formally sanctioned and ratified by the Imperial Government, in fact, on the faith of an Act of Parliament, when, we say, such are the circumstances, it is at all times a serious matter to disturb the question or change the capital. The faith of the Government, as well as the vested rights of the governed, growing out of the exercise of an implicit reliance on that faith, ought always to be held sacred and inviolable. Indeed it is only when the location of the capital is proved beyond all question to be a mistake; and when the settled population, in the fullest exercise of the powers of self-government, express an earnest and unequivocal desire for a change, for the general good, that such an act could be admissible; and even then the concurrence of the Imperial Government, and of those who invested their means in the capital already established would be obviously necessary; or, in the absence of the concurrence of the latter, indemnification to the extent of the loss inflicted by such change would only be a simple act of justice. Need we say that none of these conditions exist, save in the heated brain of a few interested persons in Victoria? The location of the capital was not a mistake. New Westminster was the most fitting site for the seat of Government when the mainland stood alone. Even Sir James Douglas, who was at that time Governor, whose private interests were inimical to it, and whose wisdom and ability Victoria "levelers" are never tired of proclaiming, was compelled reluctantly to endorse the selection made by Colonel Moody, in the following language—which we quote from his dispatch, as published in the Blue-book:—"The views which the Lieutenant-Governor has so ably developed generally coincide with my own impressions on the subject, and I am satisfied of the soundness of his conclusions." The only objection which could, with the slightest show of reason, be brought against the site was its distance from the centre of the colony. But even this was altogether outweighed by the considerations of accessibility and commercial advantages. The only change in these conditions arising out of the late accession of territory is that New Westminster is thereby rendered central, a qualification which it previously lacked. It is true the public were but the other day told by an oracular individual in Victoria that it is "like the handle of a jug, all on one side," but that was simply a stupid mistake, arising out of the fact that the gentleman making the statement was not up in the geography of the Colony. A glance at the map must have since convinced him that he made a fool of himself. New Westminster still possesses all the advantages it ever did as the capital, with the very important additional one of centrality. Another indispensable condition is wanting—that of "fixity of population." No sane man will for a moment honestly contend that an essentially "floating population," such as is found in this and every other gold-mining country, is the sort of element to which could, in wisdom or justice, be conceded the power to decide such normal questions as the location of the capital, much less the removal of one already established by act of parliament! The miners and traders of British Columbia, very many of them owing allegiance to foreign Powers, are little interested in such questions. Here to-day and away to-morrow, their motive of action is not likely to be a desire to promote the permanent interests of the Colony, as such, but rather to facilitate in every way the purpose to which a temporary sojourn in the country is owing. Such being the case it follows that when they are induced to affix their names to petitions, or otherwise take part in an agitation about such matters as the location of the seat of Government, the fact cannot, with any degree of reason or fairness, be attributed to such motives and circumstances as should alone entitle them to a deciding power. What matters it to such whether the seat of Government be located to the east or to the west of the Gulf of Georgia, or, indeed, for the matter of that, to the north or to the south of the forty-ninth parallel of latitude? All they care about is a Government to protect their rights, at the lowest possible cost, and to facilitate in every way their business here—the accumulation of a competency with which to enjoy life in their own country. Would it not be the height of folly to invite such persons to decide such questions? Would it not be a gross injustice to those who have adopted this Colony as their permanent home, and who have invested their all in it to submit such questions to such arbitrament? What guarantee, nay what probability would there be that such decisions, if given, would possess the merits of wisdom and finality? And if the character of the population be such, the objections which lie against investing the people with a deciding power must lie with equal force against investing their so-called representatives with such power. Victoria politicians tell us, that the Legislative Council about to assemble is competent to legislate upon the subject, as representing the wishes of the colonists. These politicians are very fond of ridiculing the Legislative Council and sneering at the idea of the people being represented in it, when ever it suits their purpose to do so. Upon this question it appears to suit their purpose to adopt the contrary course, though from what motive we are at a loss to conceive, as we are very certain that a large majority even of that body would not so outrage justice and common sense, as well as their own better judgment, by advocating the removal of the seat of Government to Victoria. But, let us analyze the Legislative Council, and see whether, even if it were conceded that the present population of the Colony had a right in fact and in justice to deal with the question, the House represents the people in the sense and to that extent which might be fairly presumed to entitle it to take final and decisive action thereupon. In a Council of twenty-three members there are nine who have been elected by the people, the remaining fourteen being nominated by the Crown, not upon the ground of any supposed popularity, but because of a certain official status. These fourteen members do not necessarily represent the people upon any single political issue. They may or they may not. Nor are they in any sense or manner responsible to the people for whom they are called upon to legislate. They can, and sometimes do, with perfect impunity set popular opinion at open and utter defiance! The nine so-called elective members have been, in some way or other, elected by the people, it is true. But what materially detracts from the virtue of that election is the manner of it. Every resident, of whatever nationality, creed or color, who has been in the Colony for three months prior to the election, is invited to vote. Thus have we seen the foreigner, who was but waiting the arrival of the next steamer to carry him from the Colony forever, step up to the poll and record his vote, or a drove of Kanakas, who required a half-hour's tuition and a second trial in order to distinctly to articulate the name of the candidate in whose interest they had been dragged up, standing upon equal footing with the resident British subject! Is it to men so elected, and some of them not owning a dollar's worth of property in the country, but being mere "birds of passage," like many of their constituents, is it to a Council so constituted that can wisely and judiciously be committed the power of deciding such questions as the one under discussion? The proposition is too monstrously absurd and grossly outrageous to be seriously contemplated for a single moment. If such things were done in the green tree what might not be done in the dry? What confidence could the capitalist possibly have, or what safety would there be in investing money in any place, if the faith of the Government were held so lightly, and such a question as the location of the seat of Government thrown as a bone of contention, into a mixed and chiefly "floating population?"

CURE IS AT HAND!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Scorbutic Eruptions, on Sore Heads and Scrofulous Swellings.

If this powerful Ointment be well rubbed into the parts affected, all skin diseases will be speedily overcome. It acts not by repression, but repulsion. It enters the system as salt enters meat, and operates not locally only, but constitutionally purifying the whole system, neutralizing all depraved humors, and affecting a radical and complete cure. The Pills should be taken as an auxiliary to the Ointment, as they are prepared to act in unison with it, facilitating and confirming the conquest of the disease.

Diphtheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat and Quinsy.

The above complaints have for twenty years been treated with Holloway's Ointment and Pills with complete success. The cure has been so remarkable, speedy and unerring, that these often fatal diseases are more easily cured by these medicines, than even the common sore throat, if taken in time.

The Kidneys, Stone and Gravel.

In these complaints, the Ointment almost acts like a charm, producing an immediate relief. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and safely cured by the use of the same means. Some who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Headache, Sick Headache, Fever, Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Bro. ATZM: I cannot express you what complete I have cured with your Pills better than to say that we are cured with a purgative medicine. I have been suffering from an affection of the liver in my duty course with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I would advise you to send a full quantity, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. BOYD, Clerk of the Court, Baltimore.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their medicinal effects upon the Liver very marked. In my practice, I have found them to be the most effective for the cure of bilious complaints than any remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that you have so long a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb. 1865.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my clinical and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regular action on the liver is quick and powerful, and consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease or obstruction that it did not remove. I have used them in the treatment of the following cases: Biliousness, Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Piles, &c.

From Dr. J. P. Fungus, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of constipation. I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion, and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

WARREN, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1865.

PILLS.

ARE you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings unaccountable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some of our sick-sufferers, from your kind and timely use of the "Ayer's Pills," have been cured of the most distressing ailments. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the healthy action of the body take its natural course. They stimulate the functions of the body, and purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold, swollen, and inflamed body, and obstructs the natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding system, and produce a general derangement of the body. Within this condition, caused by the derangement, take Ayer's Pills, and you have directly the natural action of the system, and with it the vigorous action of the blood, and the healthy action of the body. This is the true and so apparent in this trial and common complaint. It is true in many of the most distressing ailments. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and safely cured by the use of the same means. ## UNPRINCIPLED JOURNALISM.

Under the caption "An Executive Usurpation" the Victoria Colonist of Thursday devotes a "leader" to denouncing the act of the Governor in giving the island only seven representatives in the Legislative Council of the united Colony, when the Imperial Act distinctly contemplated eight. "The rule is laid down," says our contemporary, "the law is established—that eight members shall be the number of island representatives. There is no qualification in the terms of the Act, in this or any other respect—no hole through which either Daniel O'Connell or Frederick Seymour could drive a coach-and-four of any other vehicle, large or small." After indulging in a lot of rant about usurpation and reducing the people of the island "to the level of Russian serfs," our contemporary impudently suggests that the Governor may never have read the section of the Act bearing upon the point, which he republishes, and "commends to the careful perusal of his Excellency," the vital part of which reads as follows:—"But in order that provision may be made for the Representation of Vancouver Island in the Legislative Council of British Columbia after the Union, the maximum number of Councillors in the Legislative Council of British Columbia after the Union shall, until it is otherwise provided by lawful authority, be twenty-three instead of fifteen." It does not, we imagine, require any legal acumen to discover that there is not the slightest foundation for the position taken by the Colonist. Treating the Island and the Mainland as one common Colony, which they became the moment the Union Act was promulgated from the steps of the Treasury Buildings, it was quite competent for his Excellency to distribute the twenty-three seats as he thought proper. To have given fifteen to the Island and eight to the mainland would have been no unwarranted or illegal assumption of Executive prerogative, no infringement of the Act, although it would have been obviously unfair to the larger and more important section. Our contemporary says, "The mainland, therefore, is secure in the possession of sixteen members out of twenty-three, when it must be clear to every unprejudiced mind that it can only rightfully lay claim to fifteen." We recommend our contemporary, before writing a leader on such a subject, and denouncing what he is pleased to characterize as an "Executive Usurpation" to be sure that he starts from correct premises. A reference to the list of members for the new Council, a copy of which we presume he has at hand, will reveal the fact that the mainland has precisely the number of members which he says "it can rightfully lay claim to." The office of Colonial Treasurer is presumed to be temporarily vacant, and, consequently, there are for the present only twenty-two members. Yet it is no secret that Mr. W. A. G. Young, ex-Colonial Secretary of the late Colony of Vancouver Island has been invited at least to fill the consequent vacancy in the Legislative Council during the approaching session, thereby giving to the Island the full complement claimed by the Colonist. Perfectly aware of all these facts and circumstances, the attack made upon the Governor by our Victoria contemporary is altogether inexcusable, and his strictures are as false as they are gratuitous. If our memory serves us it was but the other week that the Colonist was jubilant over the result of the elections and appointments, exultingly affirming that Victoria could safely count upon a majority in the new Council. Why the sudden change? Wherefore this piteous wail? Is it possible that our contemporary has been accused of "toadying" to the Government lately, and that the article in question was designed to keep himself right with his local readers? If so, it is a pity he made such an unfortunate choice of a subject. Surely there are enough of real grievances at hand, without manufacturing imaginary ones, in order to mislead the public mind, and create groundless prejudice against the Governor. His Excellency's position is sufficiently trying, the task he has in hand sufficiently difficult, and it should be the aim of the public journalist rather to allay undue discontent, and strengthen the hands of his Excellency, at least, so far as is consistent with right principles.

THE WEATHER has been exceedingly mild, and considerable rain fell during Wednesday and Thursday, in consequence of which the snow has nearly entirely disappeared. Yesterday the sun shone out and everything looked cheery and spring-like.

FROM VICTORIA. The steamer Enterprise, Captain Swanson, arrived from Victoria on Thursday evening, with a small freight and a number of passengers, amongst whom we observed Bishop Hills, Capt. Stamp, Member for Lillooet, Messrs. Waddington, Sparrow, Aikman, Norris, and Lieut. Pearce and Ensign Moorehead, of the Victoria Rifles. We understand Mr. Pearce, Ensign Moorehead and Corporal Norris were deputized by the Corps to make application to Government for an appropriation in support of the Volunteer movement. Mr. Waddington's business up to is to endeavour to obtain an extension of his charter for the Butte Inlet road. From the files of the Colonist, brought up by the steamer we glean the following:—The clipper ship Cyclone, belonging to Aberdeen, and commanded by Capt. Alexander Bruce, which visited Victoria twice, was lost on the south-west coast of the Island of Tangara Tima, with the master and nineteen of the crew. A petition has been forwarded to the Governor, from the settlers of Chemainus district setting forth the inconvenience they suffer from the want of regular steam communication between that settlement and Victoria and Nanaimo. The petition states that there are now upwards of thirty settlers there, and that the only existing means of communication is by boats or canoes. It also complains of the effects of supplying the Indians with whisky, and prays that the steamer Sir James Douglas, or any other steamer which may be on the route, may call at their settlement. [We are not aware of the peculiar circumstances under which the petition made its appearance in a public newspaper before being presented to his Excellency. Such a thing is certainly unusual, and, to say the least, in bad taste.—Ed. B. C.]—Mr. J. C. Keenan has taken possession of the Occidental, which he has refitted in splendid style. Mr. J. P. Couch has been appointed Purser of the Active, vice Mr. Norton, who, it is said, will reside at Victoria. The shipment of treasure by last mail steamer amounted to $161,415 54.—Mr. A. D. Bell, for some time connected with the press of Victoria, and now attached to the editorial staff of the San Francisco Bulletin, has written a local drama, entitled "Milliecent's Husband," which has, it is said, been successfully produced in the Opera House of that city.—The Anniversary Missionary services in the Pandora street Wesleyan church, held on Sunday and Tuesday, were very successful. The sermons on Sunday were preached by the Rev. E. White, of New Westminster. Amongst the speakers on Tuesday evening were Mr. A. R. Robertson, and Hon. Mr. Hines, of Washington Territory.

THE YALE VACANCY.—In a paragraph upon this subject the Victoria Colonist mentions that Dr. Black is a candidate, and "has already secured sixty pledges." Our contemporary says Mr. Barnard of the Express, is understood to have aspirations for the vacant seat, but is said to have come too late into the field. Without in any way calling in question the correctness of the former statement, we are in a position to give the latter a positive contradiction. That Mr. Barnard would make an active and efficient member we readily admit; but that he has any aspirations in that direction, or has entered "the field" early or late we positively deny, as we happen to know that he would not consent to stand if invited to do so by every elector in the district. In fact, his position as the Government contractor would not admit of it. The Colonist mentions Capt. Doane, of Victoria, as a candidate, and adds, "Should he consent, he would whip the Doctor out of his boots." We should imagine that if Doctor Black has already "secured sixty pledges" his election is tolerably certain. Indeed, we understand his return is assured, and that he will be unopposed.

THE SKATING RINK.—A meeting of the subscribers to this object was held in the Hyack Hall last evening. Mr. John Calder was elected Chairman, and Mr. J. S. Clute Secretary. Mr. G. C. Clarkson gave a statement of the financial condition of the movement, which showed $100 subscribed, $62.50 of which had been paid in. After some discussion it was decided that in consequence of the season being so far spent and the small prospect of there being any skating this winter, the enterprise should be abandoned, and the money refunded to subscribers, who will receive their several subscriptions by calling at the Book-store of Messrs. G. C. Clarkson & Co.

FROM NANAIMO.—The Nanaimo Tribune says a correspondent writing from Comox complains of the want of a Justice of the Peace in that settlement. The same paper announces that in the "bore" shale had been struck at a depth of 73 feet, and coal was hourly expected. The rumor of Mr. Nicol having declined to take his seat in the Legislative Council is contradicted.

THEATICAL.—The performance given by the New Westminster Dramatic Club on Thursday evening was, all things considered, very successful. To begin with, the weather could scarcely have been more unpropitious. With a heavy snow mid-leg deep under foot and rain pouring down over head, it required some little courage to "face the music." Then the song little theatre was somewhat damp and chilly, especially in the vicinity of the door, owing, we believe, to the circumstance of the carpenters having been at work up till a late hour on Thursday. But, notwithstanding these untoward circumstances the audience was large and fashionable, and the general interest was exceedingly well sustained throughout the whole evening. Amongst the audience were His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Seymour, Hon. A. N. Birch, Hon. P. O'Reilly and Mrs. O'Reilly, Hon. J. W. Trutch and Mrs. Trutch, Hon. H. M. Ball, Hon. Capt. Nicol, Mr. Stapleton, Mr. Maunsell, Mr. and Mrs. Bushby, Mr. and Mrs. Good, and many others belonging both to official and unofficial circles. In all we should say fully 150 in number. It is not usual to enter into a critical notice of a performance by amateurs, nor have we room to do so if we would. We will say generally, however, that the performance on Thursday night was unexceptionably successful, especially in the drama entitled the Charcoal Burner, several characters in which were sustained to perfection, eliciting repeated bursts of applause from the audience. The comic songs produced much amusement, especially the Retirement Song, by Mr. Pratt, which was loudly encored. The stage was fitted up with the new scenery recently purchased by the Club, and to pay for which was the financial object of the performance. The theatre now looks remarkably well, and it is a little more comfort in point of drying and heating could be attained, it would be everything that could be reasonably desired in the present circumstances. Certainly the spirited gentlemen comprising the Club are entitled to much credit for the zeal displayed in providing such entertainments for the public.

SEYMOUR ARTILLERY.—Shortly after the Seymour Artillery Battery, under Capt. Holmes, R. A., was organized in this city a requisition was sent home for two Armstrong guns and small arms and accoutrements for the men. We understand Capt. Holmes received advice by last mail to the effect that there would shortly be shipped for his battery two 24-pound howitzers, together with 100 stands of artillery rifles, accoutrements and ammunition. It appears that the application for Armstrong guns could not be entertained on the ground of expense. We believe the battery is now in very efficient condition, and it is gratifying to learn that they are likely soon to be in possession of proper arms, &c.

A NEW PAPER IN VICTORIA.—The Colonist announces, with a great flourish of trumpets, the appearance of a Sunday paper in Victoria, styling itself the Islander. We have not had the privilege of seeing the paper, but understand it is a mere excrescence of the Colonist, produced by a process of reprint, with a garnishing of a short leader and two or three local items. Consequently it was rather indelicate of our contemporary to "puff" it so floridly.

THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.—The opening of the new Legislative Council on Thursday next will be invested with rather greater interest than similar occasions have hitherto been. We understand it is the intention of quite a number of Victorians to come up by the next steamer in order to be present, and it is Capt. Swanson's intention to reach here on Wednesday, and remain till Friday. We believe that Capt. Prichard's Corps will furnish a Guard of Honor for the occasion.

ANNIVERSARY SERMONS.—The Anniversary Missionary Sermons will be preached in Mary street Wesleyan Church to-morrow, at 11 a.m., by the Pastor of the Church; and at 7 p.m. by the Rev. D. Duff, of St. Andrew's Church. The Anniversary meeting in connection with the same, will be held on Thursday evening, of which further notice will be given.

REMOVED.—The Post-office was removed into the Registry Buildings on Thursday, and the outside accommodations will be completed in a day or two. The change will be a great convenience to the public.

STILL DOWN.—The telegraph lines being still down, we are obliged again to appear before our readers without later news.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—We are informed that the Bishop of Columbia will hold Confirmation Service at St. Mary's Church, Sapperton, to-morrow afternoon.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

FOR CARIBOO DIRECT.—Mr. James Orr leaves for Cariboo early this morning. He will take an express and mail forward.

A RICH COUPLE.—A London correspondent says that Miss Dandass-Christopher-Hamilton-Nisbett, in whom each patronimic is understood to imply a fortune, is about to be married to Lord Longchamps, the member for Worcestershire, who succeeded last year, by the death of his brother, to the title and estates, estimated at over forty thousand a year. His bride, it is said, will ultimately succeed to an income of more than sixty thousand a year, to say nothing of an immense and increasing amount of ready money.

AN OLD NEWSPAPER.—The Gazette de France is the oldest newspaper extant. It is now in its 236th year, and was already mature before the Revolution of 1688. As the old organ of Legitimacy it has not forgotten, and it may be, has not forgotten, the expulsion of the Stuarts, nor the far more recent event of the recognition by England of the younger branch of the Bourbons in France.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Confidential Advice.—To all persons who suffer from bilious headaches, disordered stomach, biliousness, or flatulency, these Pills are most strongly recommended as the safest, best, and quickest mode of obtaining ease, without weakening or irritating the nervous system. Holloway's Pills are especially useful in clearing away any excess of bile, which usually produces fever, unless remedial measures be adopted without delay. In asthma, bronchitis, and congestion of the lungs they may be relied upon for removing all danger. And, by purifying and regulating the circulation, they effectually prevent relapses. By rousing the liver to a fair secretion of bile, and quickly carrying it from the system, these Pills ward off low spirits, listlessness, and those distressing feelings often called "nervous."

TOYS AND FANCY GOODS.—G. C. Clark & Co. having made large additions of the above Goods to their stock, any one wishing to make a present would do well to give them a call, as they have a great variety of nice, neat and natty articles of vertu which are useful, and at the same time will please the eye and adorn a table or mantel-shelf.

NOTICE. CODVILLE LANDING! Important to Packers, Stock Drivers, and the Public in General.

THE Public are respectfully informed that James Codville, of the wide renowned Codville Landing Ranch, is prepared to receive any number of animals and cattle to ranch this coming winter, on the most liberal terms. Large Reductions from the regular price made in favor of trains. Persons intending wintering their own stock can be accommodated with Hay in the stack, and stables and sheds for their animals, and Houses for themselves, on the most reasonable terms. The Ranch is situated on the opposite side of the Fraser from that of Sumas, is on an island 6 1/2 miles long, by 4 1/2 wide, is high and dry, no place where animals can tire, well protected from north winds, free from any kind of poison weeds, and affords every facility, natural and artificial, for the accommodation of stock. James Codville would also call public attention to the fact that he is prepared to furnish Hay at a very reduced price, and in quantities to suit all purchasers. In returning thanks to the Public for past patronage, I am in hopes that the good condition in which I turned out animals on former seasons will secure for me a share of the Public patronage this coming winter. Horse covers, pack saddles, and all rigging taken care of, and every satisfaction given for the least possible charge to those who may entrust their stock to me, or order Hay. AGENTS.—DIETZ & NELSON, New Westminster. A. BARLOW, Esq., Yale. Remember Codville Landing, not Sumas. An Hotel open and a ferry from the last October for the traveling Public. JAMES CODVILLE. N. B.—Stock bought and sold on commission. sel1tc
